

Wood And Leader Win Gubernatorial Nominations

Republicans Name Mrs. Dixon Over Independent Rival

Philadelphia (AP) — Party choices surged ahead of their opposition in a developing show of strength last night as Pennsylvania's primary election vote count neared the definition stage.

Lloyd H. Wood, present lieutenant governor and GOP slatemaker's choice for the state's top executive post, registered 297,666 votes with 3,350 of 8,589 precincts reported. He was ahead in every county where a substantial number of precincts had been counted.

His nearest competitor, Thomas S. Stephenson, had 56,573 and Gordon F. Chamberlin 19,466.

The expected heated battle for the GOP nomination as secretary of internal affairs showed Mrs. Gaynelle M. Dixon, party leaders' selection running well ahead of her rival, William S. Livengood Jr., incumbent who decided to run without party backing. With 2,326 precincts in, Mrs. Dixon had 114,130 to 73,960 for Livengood.

Mrs. Gaynelle Dixon

The bulk of Mrs. Dixon's lead came in Philadelphia and Lackawanna counties.

On the Democratic side of the picture, the gubernatorial nomination race widened as the votes began to pour in. The party selection, George M. Leader, had 93,103 to 52,418 for William D. McClelland with 2,501 precincts reported. Charles J. Schmitt was running far behind at 10,465. McClelland was leading in his home county, Allegheny.

The State Superior Court race followed the three GOP party choices headed toward nomination with little difficulty. With 2,326 precincts in, George W. Griffith had 134,847, Robert E. Woodside 133,387 and Ralph T. Bell 117,915.

State Sen. John M. Walker, who had threatened to give the three leaders the stiffest fight, was in fourth spot—with only three to be nominated. Walker came F. Clair Ross of Harrisburg and Chester H. Rhodes of Stroudsburg, also seeking the Democratic nomination with Woodside, and Wilhelm F. Knauer, Ross had 48,702, Rhodes 37,807 and Knauer 19,692.

Frank F. Truscott, GOP leadership selection, was far ahead of William R. McMillen for the GOP lieutenant governorship nomination. With 2,326 precincts in, Truscott had 99,397 to 32,253 for McMillen.

McClelland was running ahead in his home area of Pittsburgh and surrounding Allegheny County but in Philadelphia Leader was ahead nearly 4-1.

In all of the other statewide contests where Wood's slated opponent had independent opposition the GOP "harmony" ticket was piling up comfortable leads.

The voting throughout the clear, sunny day was expectedly light with no real statewide contests to arouse interest.

Northampton Voters Pick Nominees

Clair H. Peiffer, Bangor; Henry Ragot, Easton, and Russell E. Moyer, Northampton, won GOP nominations for assemblymen on the basis of complete, but unofficial returns from Northampton County early this morning.

James L. Gaffney, Easton; Joseph Pacholli, Bethlehem Township and Mrs. Jeanette Reibman, Easton, won Democratic nominations.

Sen. Joseph Yosko, Democratic incumbent defeated Earl E. Gang, were also of Bethlehem for the nomination for state senator 11,294 to 2,553. Yosko will be opposed by Kenneth Kressler, Northampton GOP chairman, who was unopposed for nomination.

Gus P. Verona, Pen Argyl was elected to Democratic state committee 6,495 to 3,865 for Michael Kirner.

For Republican nomination for assemblyman was: Peiffer 3,325; Ragot, 4,277; Russell E. Moyer, 3,620 and Walter F. Stiles, Bangor R. 1, 3,234.

Vote for Democratic nomination for assemblyman was:

William Scheffer, Patch, 1,883; Gaffney, 3,882; Pacholli, 4,818; Elmer Sayer, Mt. Bethel, 1,608; Reibman, 4,827; Elwood M. Good, Bangor R. 3, 3,733; John M. Jones, Easton, 3,292.

Supporters of the bill said 36 states have laws prohibiting or regulating use of fireworks, 10 have local option laws, and two—Tennessee and Nevada—have no laws on the subject.

Mikels Polls 1,594 Votes, Walter 1,112

Political novice Leroy Mikels of Stroudsburg polled nearly a third more votes in Monroe County on the Republican ticket than veteran Francis E. Walter of Easton did on the Democratic side, in the U. S. Congress post.

Vote for Mikels, unopposed, was 1,594; for Walter, Democrats cast 1,112.

In other posts on Republican and Democratic ticket for which there was no opposition within the party, these totals were recorded unofficially in Monroe County:

LL Governor, Roy E. Furman, Greene County, Democrat, 935.

Secretary of Internal Affairs, Genevieve Blatt, Allegheny County, Democrat, 942.

Superior Court, Democrat ticket only, Chester H. Rhodes 1,129; Robert E. Woodside 708; F. Clair Ross 762.

State senator, John A. Brislin, Stroud Township, Democrat, 870.

State committeeman: Forrest R. Smith, Stroudsburg Democrat, 909; Ray Price Jr., Barrett Township Republican, 1,567.

Assemblyman: Van D. Yetter Jr., Marshalls Creek Democrat, 1,629; John S. Shotwell, Brodheadsville Republican, 1,767.

County chairman: Jacob F. Altmease, Stroudsburg Democrat, 1,662; Ben K. Williams, East Stroudsburg Republican, 1,759.

Senate Okays Fireworks Ban

Washington (AP)—A bill to restrict shipments of fireworks with the aim of reducing casualties passed the Senate yesterday 73-3.

It would forbid shipments into states which ban fireworks and in instances in which manufacturers know the fireworks would be used illegally.

The bill was sent to a Senate-House Conference Committee to work out minor differences. The House passed the bill last July in a somewhat different form.

Voting against Senate passage were Sens. Olin D. Johnston (D-SC), Welker (R-Idaho) and McCarthy (R-Wis.).

By voice vote, the Senate wrote into the measure an amendment to put the restrictions into effect July 1—a date by which most fireworks for next July 4 probably will have been shipped.

Supporters of the bill said 36 states have laws prohibiting or regulating use of fireworks, 10 have local option laws, and two—Tennessee and Nevada—have no laws on the subject.

Roswell, N. M. (AP)—Vast areas of southeastern New Mexico's drought country, hit for two days by deluges and tornadoes, dug out from under flash floods yesterday and watched the skies warily for more storms.

Roswell and Lovington, cities of 30,000 and 10,000 population, were hit hardest by tornadoic thunderstorms. Three and four inches of rain Monday night and early yesterday inundated both communities.

Red Warplane Greets Wilson

Seoul (AP)—A Communist plane flew over Seoul yesterday while Defense Secretary Wilson 65 miles away was listening to President Syngman Rhee call for more U. S. air aid for South Korea.

The plane, which may have timed its visit with that of Wilson's, flew high and out of sight. Fifth Air Force jets scrambled to intercept it.

Rhee charged the Communists with continuous true violations—such as the invasion of South Korea's air—and declared:

"Build up our strength and the talks at Pannunjon and Geneva will begin to make sense . . ."

Rhee praised Gen. James A. Van Fleet, retired 8th Army commander who has been sent out to check on U. S. military aid, as "the father of the ROK (Republic of Korea) Army."

Tom (8thg.) Hughes back from Florida in time to pick up a renewal of Spring weather in the Poconos . . .

Ike Refuses To Retreat In Inquiry

Washington (AP)—The White House stood pat for the time being yesterday on a presidential order that left the McCarthy-Army hearings dangling somewhere between temporary and permanent eclipse.

The order instructed high administration officials not to talk to Senate investigators about their discussions of the blaring controversy between Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) and top men in the Army.

The White House made it rather clear there are slim chances, if any, that President Eisenhower will alter the instructions.

Presidential Press Secretary James C. Hagerty told reporters that "The President issued his letter yesterday—period."

That seemed to be another way of saying that Eisenhower wasn't retreating an inch from his contention that any senatorial inquiry into confidences within the administration on the big controversy goes against the fundamental constitutional principle of separation of powers.

Under instructions from the Senate Investigations subcommittee, Acting Chairman Mundt (R-S.D.) set up a conference with Atty. Gen. Brownell to explore the possibility of getting the presidential order modified. But this was put off for a while. Mundt said Brownell wanted more time to study hearing transcripts.

Mundt huddled with members of the Senate Republican Policy Committee. Nothing definite came of that, although the senator said he is sticking by a statement that the hearings, now in recess until Monday, are not necessarily at an end.

What the subcommittee is trying to find out is who lied and who told the truth in an exchange of conflicting charges between McCarthy and Secretary of the Army Stevens and some of their lieutenants.

The Army charge is that McCarthy and two of the subcommittee staff, Roy M. Cohn and Francis P. Carr, turned on improper pressure to try to win special treatment for Pvt. G. David Schine. Schine was an unpaid consultant to the subcommittee before he was drafted last fall. McCarthy normally is chairman of the subcommittee but turned the gavel over to Mundt during the course of the hearings.

The charge from the other side is that Stevens and Army Counselor John Adams used Schine as a hostage and tried to blackmail McCarthy into halting a hunt for alleged Communists and Communist coddlers in the Army.

Now, McCarthy contends, the Eisenhower order is a roadblock, an "iron curtain" that will prevent his establishing motives and proving his charges.

The hearings rumbled to a temporary halt at a point where the investigators were trying to determine just who was responsible for the accusations against McCarthy and company—Stevens and his aides or, as an outgrowth of a Jan. 21 conference at the Justice Department, someone higher up in the administration.

London (AP)—Former Prime Minister Clement Attlee denied in the House of Commons yesterday that his Socialist government "sold out" to America on Britain's right to veto unilateral atom-bombing.

Urges Agreement

New Delhi, India (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru called yesterday for quick agreement at Geneva on a cease-fire in Indochina without waiting for a "political decision."

Towns Approve Change In Name

The communities of Mauch Chunk and East Mauch Chunk in the heart of Pennsylvania's hard coal area voted nearly 10 to 1 yesterday to become Jim Thorpe, Pa., honoring the late great Indian athlete.

The two Carbon County communities voted 2,263 to 199 to accept the new joint name. A million dollar heart and cancer center is planned for the newly named town.

Thorp gained much of his athletic fame while playing football at the one-time Carlisle, Pa., Indian School. He died last year of cancer.

Less Than Fifth Of Voters Cast Ballots In County

Only about 19 per cent of Monroe County's registered voters cast votes yesterday. It was one of the smallest votes in many years.

Total vote was estimated at 3,312. Republicans polled 2,066, or 62 per cent of their registration, and Democrats 1,226, or 38 per cent of registration.

Burgess Harris Orders Cop Suspended

Officer Russell Decker is suspended from Stroudsburg police force for "inattention to duty," Burgess Hal H. Harris said yesterday.

Burgess Harris issued the suspension order Monday night, he said.

Decker was off duty Monday, and yesterday began a week's vacation, according to Police Chief James F. McConnell. Decker had been working with the night shift.

Burgess Harris said the suspension is for 30 days without pay. "And I think it will be extended for good," he added.

The Burgess is empowered to suspend an officer and can recommend discharge.

Decker lives at 120 Linden St., Stroudsburg. He said last night he will present his side of the affair.

Sen. Freed Defeated In Lehigh County

Harrisburg (AP)—A Republican incumbent was overwhelmed in Lehigh County yesterday in seeking his party's nomination for a second term in the State Senate.

Sen. Tilghman A. Freed received only 2,662 votes against the 8,993 rolled up by Rep. John Van Sant.

Van Sant is after the Senate berth after serving two terms in the House for Lehigh County.

Freed had served three terms in the House prior to going to the Senate in 1951.

Lehigh County was the first in the state to report complete legislative voting returns. Renominated on the GOP ticket for the House were Reps. Marian E. Markley, 2nd District, and Reginald P. Stimmel, 1st District.

West Fails To Break Deadlock Over Indochina

Geneva (AP)—East and West wrangled in secret for another three hours yesterday but failed to break the deadlock in their negotiations for peace in Indochina.

An official screen of secrecy covered the talks, but a conference source said no progress on the major issues separating Western and Communist viewpoints had been made.

The dispute inside the conference room spread outside where French and Vietnamese spokesmen, in separate news conferences, voiced recriminations about the breakdown of the arrangement for evacuating wounded from the fallen fortress of Dien Bien Phu.

Public Housing Bill Rescued

Washington (AP)—The Senate Banking Committee voted yesterday to rescue the public housing program which the House sought to kill.

The committee's action, if approved by the Senate and the House, would more than meet President Eisenhower's request for authority to build 35,000 units of low-cost housing each year for the next four years. The number to be built each year would be left to the President. The House had rejected the request.

The committee, starting work on a general housing bill, decided also to try to rule out "windfall profits" for builders of projects financed with FHA-insured loans.

Defendant Accused

Warren (AP)—A state policeman testified yesterday that Norman W. Moon had marked Judge Allison D. Wade for death before the judge was slain in court last Jan. 13.

Wiley Raps Red Shipments To Guatemala

Washington (AP)—The acting head of Guatemala's Embassy, Dr. Alfredo Chocano, walked out of a dinner of Latin American diplomats last night as Sen. Wiley (R-Wis.) sharply criticized the shipment to Guatemala of arms from Communist-dominated Poland.

Wiley, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, urged Western Hemisphere nations to go into consultation on the matter. Such consultations, under inter-American agreements, could be the prelude to concerted action by the nations of the hemisphere.

As the senator spoke of the "grim implications" of the arms shipments, Chocano walked to the speaker's stand, apparently to excuse himself. Then he strode out of the banquet room by a back door.

Chocano is charge d'affaires of the Guatemalan Embassy here.

Earlier, the State Department officially notified Latin American embassies here of the shipment, which it had announced Monday night, but gave no indication whether it would promote any efforts to halt this or possible later shipments.

Wiley said news of the shipment was "alarming," but he told the diplomats in his prepared remarks that the situation is not one for United States concern alone.

"It is a hemispheric concern," he said. "It is a basis for hemispheric consultation."

The State Department announcement, which gave no details of the size or nature of the shipment, said it was made from the port of Settin in Communist Poland, and the arms are now being unloaded in Guatemala.

Guatemala's military chief, Col. Carlos Enrique Diaz, refused yesterday to confirm or deny the U. S. announcement, saying he was forbidden under the constitution to reveal any military information.

In Stockholm, owners of the freighter, the Alfheim, denied that it carried arms or munitions to Guatemala. They said it had only "mixed freight."

Wiley said the shipment is "part of the Communist global pattern of force and violence" and is "totally disproportionate to any legitimate needs of that country. It is a shipment contrary to the best interests of all that for which the Organization of American States stands."

In the House, Rep. Billings (R-Calif.) said the arms delivery by "Soviet sources is undoubtedly aimed at the Panama Canal," and called for "bold action" by the United States.

"The Reds apparently wish to gain a foothold in Central America," he said, "so they can sabotage the Panama Canal if United States intervention should become necessary in Southeast Asia."

18 More Wounded Are Removed

Hanoi, Indochina (AP)—A French high command spokesman said last night a lone helicopter had shuttled 18 more seriously wounded French soldiers from Dien Bien Phu to Luang Prabang, Laos' royal capital. Earlier French planes resumed their heavy bombing of key routes from the fallen fortress.

Appeals Court Upsets Jelke Verdict, Hits Press Lockout

New York (AP)—Minot F. (Mickey) Jelke's vice conviction was upset yesterday in one of New York's most far-reaching decisions of the century bearing on freedom of the press. A new trial was ordered.

The Appellate Division of the State Supreme Court in a 3-2 decision flatly rebuked trial Judge Francis L. Valente for barring press and public during the state's case against the 24-year-old oleomargarine heir. His action was termed "unorthodox . . . unwarranted."

"We conceive it to be no part of the work of the judiciary," the appeals court said, "upon the facts here presented to decide what a newspaper prints or to what portion of the people it caters to sell its papers."

The court added that Valente's ban denied Jelke a "fair and impartial trial." It did not rule directly on the issue of press freedom. But its decision was a strong, new bulwark for the state's newspapers.

The majority opinion said, in effect, that the jury justly convicted

Fine Foe Leads Eshback By More Than 5,000 Votes

William Zimmerman Scott, Lansford, Pa. attorney, four-time member of the House of Representatives and an "anti-Gov. Fine" candidate for the Republican nomination for State Senate, was an apparent winner over J. Russell Eshback, Pike county Republican chairman and a Gov. Fine endorsed candidate, in yesterday's primary election.

Unofficial total vote at 12:30 a.m. was Scott 16,241 and Eshback 5,127.

Scott will oppose John A. Brislin, Delaware Water Gap, who won the Democratic nomination without opposition, in the November election for the office now held by Sen. Montgomery F. Crowe, Republican. Crowe declined to run for reelection.

Carbon County, Scott's home district came through with tremendous backing for the former captain of Merrill's Marauders during World War Two.

Scott amassed a 6,100-vote unofficial majority in Carbon with only seven of the 63 districts unaccounted for at 12:30 a.m.

He was leading in Wayne County with 29 out of 48 districts by an unofficial 306 votes.

In Monroe County, Eshback, with all districts reported, was given a 516 majority. In Pike, his native county, Eshback had an unofficial majority of 776 votes with 11 out of 14 districts reported.

An unofficial table of the votes in these counties, with districts mentioned above missing, follows:

	Scott	Eshback
Wayne	1,610	1,304 (19 missing)
Pike	614	1,399 (4 missing)
Monroe	518	1,534 (Completed)
Carbon	7,199	1,099 (7 missing)
Total	16,241	5,127

An extremely tight vote in Monroe County and poor voting in Wayne and Pike was in sharp contrast to Carbon County's concerted voting drive for Scott.

All of Monroe County's returns, including two paper ballot districts, were in by 11:40 and all districts with voting machines had filed returns with county commissioners by 11 a. m.

Organization candidates, except for Mrs. Gaynelle Dixon, seeking secretary of internal affairs nomination, carried Monroe County.

William S. Livengood, GOP incumbent, defeated Mrs. Dixon in this county 1,317 to 676 on the basis of complete, but unofficial returns.

Lt. Gov. Lloyd Wood, candidate for gubernatorial nomination out-traced his opponents with 1,599 votes. Thomas S. Stephenson and Gordon F. Chamberlin polled 327 and 170 votes respectively.

Frank F. (Pete) Truscott, Philadelphia attorney, attorney general of Pennsylvania and long a resident of East Stroudsburg, won easily here with 1,519 votes to 498 for William R. McMillen.

Judge Chester H. Rhodes, unopposed on the Democratic ticket, carried Monroe County for the GOP nomination as a Superior Court candidate.

The president judge of the Superior Court received 1,204 votes. Judge Robert E. Woodside, another "sitting judge," polled 1,086 votes and Sen. John M. Walker, an "anti-Fine" candidate for Superior Court was third man with 812 votes.

Votes for other Superior Court nomination seekers in the GOP race—three were to be nominated—were F. Clair Ross, a sitting judge, 667; George W. Griffith, 736; Wilhelm Knauer, 208.

The previous altitude record for a plastic balloon was 11,000 feet, a little more than 21 miles, set two years ago by a smaller balloon, officials said.

Vote Pension Extension

Washington (AP)—The House Ways and Means Committee decided tentatively yesterday to extend social security coverage to more than half a million domestic workers, ministers and federal employees who are now excluded.

Jelke of cafe society pandering but that Valente bungled the case. The ruling was on a question of law, rather than fact.

Jelke was sentenced March 27, 1953, to three to six years in prison as a cafe society procurer of young women who peddled their charms for as much as $500 a night.

He had been convicted one month earlier on a charge of compulsory prostitution after one of the most sensational trials New York had seen in years.

He also was sentenced to eight months in the city's workhouse on charges of illegal possession of guns. He was freed last Oct. 6.

He has been free on bail pending his appeal of the vice case and now works as a mate on a charter fishing boat in Miami, Fla.

Ireland Votes

Dublin (AP)—Irish voters balloted in orderly fashion yesterday in a parliamentary election that will decide whether Prime Minister Eamon de Valera will continue to lead the country.

Former Hospital Interne Here Decorated By Rhee

An Army physician who served his junior internship in the General Hospital, East Stroudsburg, five years ago has been decorated with the Order of Military Merit with Gold Star by South Korean President Syngman Rhee.

Lt. John C. Mutch, 30, of Philadelphia, won the citation for treating American soldiers repatriated at Panmunjom during the prisoner-of-war exchange last year. His citation was announced last week in Seoul.

Dr. Mutch was at the General Hospital three months during the summer, before entering his senior year at University of Pennsylvania Medical School. A graduate of Princeton University and U. of P. Medical School, he will become a resident physician at Lying-In Hospital, Philadelphia, upon his return.

Since February, 1953 Dr. Mutch has been attending Rhee and his wife at least once a week. He left Korea last week after 15 months service.

The medal awarded him is one of the highest South Korean decorations presented American military leaders who participated in the Korean War.

Dr. Mutch married the former Elizabeth Louise Dunn of Philadelphia on Oct. 31, 1952 while he was serving his residency in the University of Pennsylvania Hospital.

In Korea Mutch was chief of the outpatient service for the 121st Evacuation Hospital of the Eighth Army, and personal physician to Rhee. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Erwyn Mutch reside at 1049 Park Ave., New York.

No Half Loaves

Decision of Pocono Mountains Chamber of Commerce directors to be "collaborative" with Stroudsburg Businessmen's Association, Vacation Bureau and any other organization interested in Pocono Mountains traffic problems cannot help but achieve sound results.

This decision can be best utilized for effective results, if the five-man committee designed for collaboration on a thorough study of regional road requirements is named immediately, and moves promptly toward whatever discussions and investigations are necessary to perfect a regional plan.

Regional road requirements implies a regional committee. That means organizations representing every segment of the Poconos should be included on the study group.

Each representative group must necessarily present the problems and recommendations for the region they represent. The regional committee can then move toward integrating the whole project.

Once integrated, the regional picture should be presented to the State Highway Department with special emphasis on those areas where the traffic problem is most aggravated and, therefore, in need of priority attention.

The highway problems of the Pocono Mountains are not sectional problems. What happens every day in the Stroudsburg traffic strangle affects all of the region.

What nearly happened on the Rt. 90 detour problem at Cresco, affects every section—because the economy of that region was about to be blasted down to the tune of better than $500,000.

An orderly, unbiased study, completely free of sectional privileges has the ONLY chance of success in an approach to state authorities—no matter what administration is in power.

The application of "a half loaf is better than none" to the "half-loaf" Ninth and Main St. bypass is, of course, asinine.

That theory has been too long applied to highway planning in the Pocono Mountains. Much of the blame rests with each of us because we have permitted it to happen—then scream with anguish when a "half-loaf" project is thrust upon us.

Once again—for the record—this newspaper is against "half loaf" measures at Ninth and Main St. or anywhere else in the Pocono Mountains.

This newspaper urges every segment of the region to join in the Pocono Mountains Regional Highway Planning project to press for immediate study and submission of early recommendations to state authorities.

Sponsors Get Okay

The television networks carrying the Army-McCarthy hearings as a "live" program now can go out and get sponsors.

The Senate Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations has eased its ban on any commercial sponsorships, recognizing that the hearings are going to last a long, long time and the TV time they consume costs like blazes.

Two networks, DuMont and ABC, have carried the programs "live" since they started on April 22. NBC started out that way, but dropped "live" coverage for a filmed version in the evenings because of the heavy financial loss.

At first flush, this sponsorship angle raises all kinds of fascinating possibilities. One way even suggests that the Democratic National Committee pick up the tab. And fertile imaginations have gone to work on an endless string of fascinating singing jingles that could be used.

Sorry to disillusion you.

No sponsor messages other than at beginning, end and official recesses, the subcommittee ruled, and they should follow this outline:

"These hearings are brought to you in their entirety without commentary as a public service under sponsorship of What's-His-Name."

And be selective in picking What's-His-Name, the subcommittee urged the networks.

The Once Over

"Nobody Plays Golf in Russia. There are no courses there."

We took a Russian, Ivan S. Sandtrapovich, to an American links to explain the game. It was difficult. Ivan wanted to swing all the clubs at once.

We pointed to the first green and gave him the general idea. We got a fair drive. Ivan missed the ball eleven straight times before topping it.

"How do we stand?" he demanded.

"You are eleven. I am one," we explained.

"Good! You can never overtake me," he said.

"The player with the fewest strokes wins," we explained.

"You must count the misses," "Absurd," exclaimed Ivan.

"When I miss the ball nothing has happened. It follows that it doesn't count in the least."

"Rules are rules," we said.

"A bourgeois conception," he snapped. "Who does the counting in this game?"

"Each player counts his own strokes," we said.

"Excellent," said Ivan. "I am going to do well. Nobody checks, eh?"

"It is left to conscience and the sense of truth," we said.

"Wonderful. Congratulate me. I have made this hole in one," he smiled.

"You are hardly off the tee in a dozen strokes," we said.

"The matter is not subject to discussion," he declared. "The game is over. I won easily with a total of eighteen strokes."

"But you have not played the course," we argued.

"As a Russian I announce my score first and play the course later."

"Look," we argued. "Assuming you had played eighteen holes, a score of eighteen would mean a hole in one on every green. It is impossible."

"Malenkov would expect it of me. I could do nothing less. After all, I do not want to be shot at sunrise."

We explained the rules again emphasizing that an opponent must be given a fair chance and suggested that we stop arguing and play the second hole. He asked to cable Moscow for instructions.

We agreed. Five hours later Ivan returned. "Nyet," he said simply, picking up his bag and stalking off angrily.

MEMORIAL DAY (Lest She, and We, Forget)

Robert S. Allen Reports

Asian Crisis May Slam Door On Tax Revisions

Washington—There is a very significant reason why the Senate Finance Committee is dragging its feet on that big tax recodification bill which the House passed weeks ago.

It can be summed up in one word—Indo-China!

Due to this extremely critical situation, the fate of the tax measure is highly conjectural. It's a toss-up whether the numerous business and individual savings will ever get out of the Committee. It's willing, but the Asian crisis may slam the door.

This long-awaited legislation is distinctly a chicken that has not yet been hatched.

That doesn't mean it won't be. If it's at all possible the Finance Committee will send this tax bill, or as much as is feasible, to the full Senate for approval. The committee is among the most deliberate in Congress.

But it all depends on what happens regarding the perilous situation in Indo-China.

If the Geneva Conference fails to produce a cease-fire and the U. S. has to appreciably increase military spending, then the tax-cutting bill will be shelved. It could hardly be otherwise. That's what happened in the summer of 1950 when Red aggression in North Korea forced abandonment of reductions in excise and other taxes which were awaiting final congressional action.

A group of senators were warned about the doubtful outlook on the big recodification bill during a chat with Senator Walter George (D., Ga.), former chairman of the Finance Committee and one of its most influential members.

"Frankly, the bill may never get out of committee," he said. "If we go into Indo-China, obviously it won't be possible to cut taxes."

George told his colleagues that he has not changed his mind about seeking to increase the personal exemption from $500 to $800. He intends to press vigorously for that if the tax bill is sent to the Senate. If it's pigeonholed, he will, of course, drop his proposal.

He also disclosed that Defense Secretary Charles Wilson, before departing for the Far East, met with a bipartisan group of Senate leaders and indicated that cuts in the new military budget may have to be restored. Wilson talked about retaining the Army's present strength of 20 divisions instead of lowering the number to 17 in the fiscal year starting July 1.

On the chance this may happen, the Joint Chiefs of Staff already have prepared a supplementary budget of around $5,000,000,000.

Note: Regardless of what happens to the remainder of the huge recodification bill, one provision is certain to be acted on. This continued the 32 per cent corporation tax for another year. It automatically went down to 47 per cent in April, but the House retained the higher rate at the insistence of President Eisenhower. He contended the additional revenue was needed to avert boosting the deficit.

Restaurants in the United States are serving an average of 70 million meals a day.

Flashes — The Supreme Court will adjourn June 7, barring a last minute upset. Justice William Douglas, who caused a spectacular recall of the tribunal last year, is going to Australia in August to deliver a series of lectures on U. S. constitutional law. Before departing, he will finish his next book which will be published in September. Titled "Almanac of Freedom," it will be a daily recital of historic milestones in U. S. freedom. The book will start with July 4 and end on July 3. Douglas has been working on it for eight years. ...

Now That Roger Bannister, the British athlete, has succeeded in running the mile in less than four minutes we can expect Moscow to pop up with the claim a Russian did it long ago—and through 10-foot snowdrifts at that.

Grandpappy Jenkins says he still can't believe it, but the other day he saw a movie which was just like the book from which it was taken.

Each year the 79 medical schools of the country educate 27,000 students, graduating about 6,600 doctors. No matter how high the tuition fees may be, no medical school is able to pay its own way. In addition to these regular students, the medical schools provide refresher courses for 17,000 practicing physicians.

There are 79 medical schools in this country. They are practically all in serious financial straits. Tuition fees, it is reported, have been raised to the limit. The same report says that because of the reduction of the teaching staff and the impairment of teaching programs, teaching time has been cut by seven percent since a decade ago. Several schools are now debating whether they can continue; some may be forced to close down or to become State institutions.

George Sokolsky Says...

Many Medical Schools In Nation May Be Required To Cease Their Operation

Most Of Us worry about the unimportant things, the ephemeral, but many really important matters pass unnoticed. A most serious problem that faces the American people is the possibility that many of our medical schools may be forced to close down or to curtail their services. This can leave our country without adequate facilities to produce the next generation of physicians, surgeons, psychiatrists and other specialists in the field of medicine.

There are 79 medical schools in this country. They are practically all in serious financial straits. Tuition fees, it is reported, have been raised to the limit. The same report says that because of the reduction of the teaching staff and the impairment of teaching programs, teaching time has been cut by seven percent since a decade ago. Several schools are now debating whether they can continue; some may be forced to close down or to become State institutions.

Each year the 79 medical schools of the country educate 27,000 students, graduating about 6,600 doctors. No matter how high the tuition fees may be, no medical school is able to pay its own way. In addition to these regular students, the medical schools provide refresher courses for 17,000 practicing physicians.

State Engineer Recommends No Passing Zone In Stroud Twp.

Ninth Street Also Due For Same Action

Arrangements are being made to recommend the establishment of a "No Passing" zone along Route 611 in the vicinity of Arlington Heights in Stroud Township, Stroud Township supervisors have been informed by State Highway Department officials.

R. S. Schlegel, district traffic engineer for the local highway district, advised Harold E. Albert, secretary of Stroud supervisors, of the recommendation.

Schlegel also disclosed in his letter that the recommendation will also be made in the case of the Borough of Stroudsburg's request for a "No Passing" zone from Ninth and Main St. to the Stroud Township line at the beginning of Arlington Heights.

A series of accidents, including a fatality, brought about a mass of complaints over speeding and reckless driving through the built up Arlington Heights section.

The Daily Record joined editorially in demanding a "No Passing" zone, 35-mile speed limit and a blinker signal at the intersection of Route 611 and Chipperfield Drive.

Supervisors, meanwhile, had tried to get the "No Passing" zone, but were advised that because the Borough of Stroudsburg did not want such a zone, it could not be granted.

When this was reported to Stroudsburg Council, they advised Stroud supervisors their minute showed they never made any such request, but that they would immediately file such a request as a needed safety measure on N. Ninth St. in the borough.

Schlegel also advised Mr. Albert that supervisors' request for a "No Parking" zone on both sides of Chipperfield Drive for 150 feet on both sides of the road from its intersection with Route 611 is "being considered."

He said the Stroud supervisors request for extension of the 35-mile speed limit zone in Anasomink "is under study to determine the type and number of buildings adjacent to this area of state highway."

The hearing yesterday was before President Judge Fred W. Davis.

Lions Club Stands Firm In Opposing Ninth St. Bypass In Stroudsburg

Stroudsburg Lions at their dinner meeting last night in the Penn-Stroud ballroom considered a resolution submitted by the Stroudsburg Businessmen's Association opposing the routing of Ninth St. of traffic through the borough over Foxtown Hill.

There was a general debate on the matter and it was found that the Lions Club is already on record as opposing the Ninth St. proposition. Using Ninth St. is termed the Schmidt plan.

The opposition of the Lion Club was formulated months ago and presented at the office of the State Highway Department, Harrisburg.

It was, therefore, deemed unnecessary to adopt the proposed resolution, which was regarded as a repetitious act, but the secretary was directed to write the Businessmen's Association and explain the attitude of the club and also to pledge committee cooperation in further consideration of highway and traffic problems.

Milton Garris, who represented the club at conferences with the businessmen, reported on the work accomplished and explained "the need of a new bridge between the two boroughs, not only to help handle local traffic but through traffic as well."

Floyd Butz spoke of the direct-routing of traffic into the Poconos, taking care of cars from Route 209 as well as the Lackawanna Trail.

President William Hinton said that the club should certainly not ignore, or merely table such an important problem and that the Lions should work as closely as possible with the businessmen, since the club is often asking cooperation from the merchants.

Garris heads the community betterment committee.

Incoming President Ed Driebe stressed the importance of alleviating the traffic problems of the twin boroughs.

Emerson Rahn stressed the importance of cooperation.

International counselor Elton Hall opposed any possible approval of the Ninth St. bypass, and disclosed that the club had already gone on record on this angle. He also spoke of the importance of a new twin borough bridge. He pointed

A 75-year-old man was found guilty yesterday on a charge of being drunk and disorderly, and was required to pay costs of the case by Justice of the Peace Herbert G. Bomser, East Stroudsburg.

Arch Rodney, of 17 Third St., admitted he had used profane and indecent language and was shouting, said the justice. He was arrested by Officer Donald Quick on a neighbor's complaint.

Rodney was committed to county jail, then released after the hearing at which he was found guilty.

Deil, August 13, David Duke's Hotel, Henry Reader called on all members to settle up for outstanding circus tickets, explaining that the club has to settle with the circus today.

'Flying Pastor' To Resign Charge August 31 For Study Before Leaving For Brazil

Middle Smithfield—Congregation of the Presbyterian Church here voted last night to unite with Rev. Alex Crossan, pastor, in his request to the Presbytery to dissolve pastoral relations as of August 31.

Members also agreed that Rev. Crossan may spend part time flying commercially out of East Stroudsburg Airport this Summer.

Both decisions tie in with Rev. Crossan's disclosure that the Board of Foreign Missions has accepted him for duty in Brazil, with service scheduled to begin in 1955.

Rev. Crossan told the congregation at a special meeting that because of graduate work in Princeton, N. J., Theological Seminary, he will have to spend all next year in Brazil.

term on the campus there. This action, he said, is necessary so he may complete all the requirements for his doctorate on theology in church history.

The "flying minister" looks forward to teaching ministerial students in Brazil and because of the huge area of travel, he anticipates flying from village to village in his work.

Permission to fly for Hal Hamelin in East Stroudsburg was sought by the minister so he could apply his earnings toward the purchase of a new plane which he will fly in Brazil.

Rev. and Mrs. Crossan and children, Alex III, 2½, and Karen, 4½, will leave here in September. After studying in Princeton, and upon

Reservoir Repairs Planned

Delaware Water Gap—Borough council met Monday night. Reports from the water committee and street commission were heard.

Layton Houser, water commissioner, told council the water reservoir has been emptied and is now being cleaned in preparation for three years ago from Princeton following the minister's graduation and ordination. In these years he has flown to Princeton to continue his studies. Last summer the entire family made a cross-country flight to visit their families in Washington and California.

Rev. Crossan explained the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions currently has four planes operating in Brazil.

"That country went directly from the horse-drawn cart to airplanes," he said. "There are no large networks of highways and travel is difficult."

Small landing fields have been built near practically every village where churches are located, the minister said. What formerly took a jeep to cover in four months, now takes three weeks by private plane.

His assignment with East Stroudsburg Airport also will give the minister a dual role, he says.

"Not only will I be able to raise funds to buy my missionary airplane, but I will have close contact with the vacationists. This is a natural contact to remind them of the work of the church," he explained.

Many People Prefer Wood Sash Windows

Deciding On Windows can be one of the trickiest problems encountered when planning to remodel or build a house. There are more styles and types of windows on the market today than you can shake a stick at. Some are supposed to be even when they are supposed to be. The movable devices to near gadgets, as you probably have observed.

Well, so much has been said recently about various metal windows and so many people prefer wood sash windows that a look at real modern millwork reveals some big surprises for most of us.

For instance, have you noticed that the old-fashioned sash weight is gone? Have you seen the wood framed, wood sash windows that you can wash in the middle of the living room floor? And have you heard of "treated" windows?

These are all on hand at lumber yards handling fine millwork.

The Sash Weight may be mourned by writers of murder mysteries, but not by householders who have tried to cope with a broken sash cord. These clumsy devices have been replaced by spring balances, carefully matched to the weight of the window for easy operation.

The spring balances don't take up as much space as the sash weight arrangement, so window frames are much narrower than they used to be. Narrow frames prove to be better looking and result in more wall area, more glass area in a window, or both.

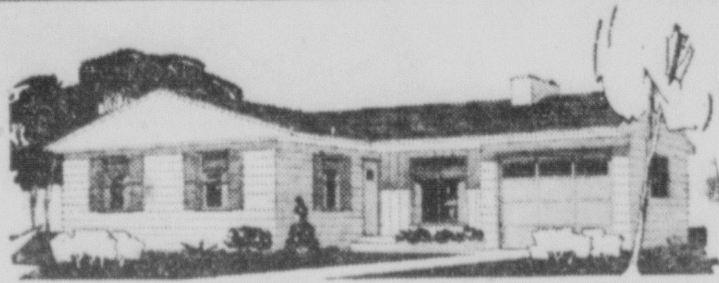

Washing the outside of a window in the middle of the living room floor is much less of a trick nowadays than risking your neck by sitting out on the sill. New double-hung wood sash windows are made to be taken out at will. A flick of the finger a slight push and a gentle lift does it. Various built-in devices make it possible.

Among other improvements are better methods of weatherstripping. A great many modern wood sash windows are manufactured as units. The sash and frame are matched to each other and used as one assembly. This permits installing weatherstripping at the factory by carefully engineered methods. Complete units are easier and less expensive to install.

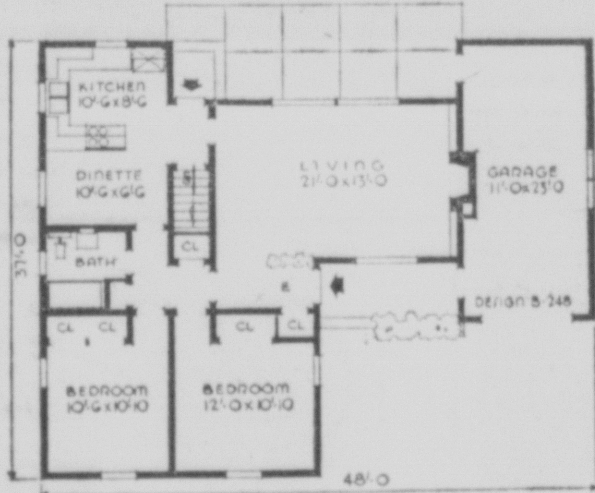

A "Treated" Window is one that has been immersed in water-repellent preservative. This protects the wood from moisture and holds shrinking, swelling, warping and rotting to a negligible minimum. The treatment does not discolor the wood and it serves as an excellent base for paint.

Windows and doors, of course, are the principal moving parts of a house. So experience has been a great teacher for the millwork manufacturers. About half a century ago, almost any handy soft wood was used for millwork. But when abrasive wear caused some woods to splinter and disintegrate in other ways, research began.

The result has been that for more than 40 years ponderosa pine has taken the lead among materials used for quality windows and doors. This wood now produced principally in about nine Western states, won the race in window frame making because its DESIGN B-248. There are many interesting features in this plan which merit careful study. For instance, the two way view from the living room, covered walks from attached garage to the house in both front and rear, combination kitchen-dinette, access to all rooms from hall and grouping of the plumbing.

In addition there are a full basement, two bedrooms, fireplace with book shelves, efficient kitchen arrangements, wardrobe closets and recessed bath tub.

Exterior finish is wide siding, asphalt shingles, vertical redwood in front and plywood in the front gable end. Floor area is 1000 square feet with 18,500 cubic feet.

soft texture made smooth and accurate machining practicable.

One reason wood framed windows hold their popularity is because of the insulating capacity of wood. On cold winter days, metal window frames drip with condensation. Double glazing may insulate the panes enough to keep the glass clear, but metal frames still "sweat."

This is more or less inevitable. When you want heat conduction, such as for pots and pans on the stove, you use metal, not wood. The refrigerating data book of the American Society of Refrigerating Engineers shows that in a given length of time, aluminum of a given thickness and area will transmit from 1360 to 1780 times as much heat as a piece of pine of the same dimensions.

Of course, everything seems to have its advantages and disadvantages. There is no denying that metal window frames are thin and narrow. But apparently you can't win pine millwork out of the picture.

WIL-BOND
before Repainting

A glossy varnished or enameled surface should be cleaned and dulled before repainting. It's easy with WIL-BOND. Just dampen a rag with this liquid and rub down the surface. Oil, wax, grease and dirt—and the gloss is thoroughly dulled. The new finish spreads smoothly and adheres perfectly—no danger of a streaky, ugly result.

New Plastics Help Remake Your Kitchen

If You Are bored with your old kitchen cupboards and can't afford to buy new ones right now, you can dress them up with laminated plastic sheeting available in wood-grained patterns—oak, pine, mahogany, maple.

Your home handyman may find this high pressure laminate in 4 x 8 foot sizes at building supply dealers. If it is to work properly old cabinets must be of smooth construction, and at least three-fourths of an inch in thickness. Or it can be used on new cabinets of inexpensive plywood.

The Handyman will need an 11-point hand saw for straight sawing, a scroll saw for cutting curves, a fine file, a block plane, and a kitchen rolling pin. Materials include the laminate, adhesive and heavy wrapping paper.

The wrapping paper serves as a pattern. It is cut to the exact dimensions of the counter tops. It is kept between the cemented surface and the laminate until the laminated cover is ready to be put in place. This operation gives you the opportunity to size up the project before the laminate touches the cement, and becomes immovable.

The Laminate is cut about a sixteenth of an inch larger than the pattern all around. This surface may be planned off later when the laminate is cemented. The edge is then beveled with the file to improve its appearance and make it perfectly smooth. The rolling pin applies pressure when the top is cemented down.

Many new homes have cabinets of this type. The cabinets are also available ready-made in department stores. Usually the interiors of these cabinets are enameled in a color to harmonize with the wood grains of the outside.

These Laminates are said not to need waxing or polishing. Their surface is said to be proof against ordinary household stains—alcohol, acids, bleaches, ink, etc. They are supposed to be highly resistant to cigarette burns and boiling water.

high in fertility, it may be considered as a commercial form of compost. Dug into the soil or placed around plant roots at planting time, it feeds and lightens soil texture and helps retain moisture.

Child's Toys Often Useful About House

A Child's outgrown play equipment can come in useful around the house. A blackboard can be fastened to a kitchen door or wall. An outgrown wagon or sled can save lugging heavy baskets of clothes back and forth to the clothes line. A toy broom is handy to use with a dustpan, or for brushing snowy overshoes at the doorway or ashes at the hearth. Crayons can be used for labeling boxes or other containers stored in closets or attics. Small cement play blocks may be used as weights to hold down patterns for seamstresses.

'Tint' Differs From 'Shade'

When Redecorating, it is helpful to know that the words "tint" and "shade," often used as if interchangeable, each has a different meaning.

A tint is a combination of pure color and white. The more white you introduce, the lighter the tint. A shade is a combination of pure color and black. The more black you introduce, the darker the shade.

White is a combination of all colors. Black is the absence of any color. "Hue" indicates the name of a color, like red, green or yellow. "Value" refers to the lightness or darkness of a color, regardless of hue.

Landscaping Adds To Beauty Of Home When Carefully Done

PERMANENT LANDSCAPING about a house should be a decoration carefully planned to contribute to the beauty of the building as well as create an attractive picture to the viewers from the street.

When tall trees dwarf the house, and jungle-like shrubs and evergreens hide it and prevent occupants from seeing out windows, the planting has failed in its purpose.

EXAMPLES OF SUCH failures are frequently given by modern one-story homes planted with shrubs and evergreens which have long been the conventional materials to use about story-and-a-half or two-story homes which needed a band of green to "tie them to the ground."

One-story houses, with the main floor little higher than ground level, demand a different treatment, by which they will not be made to seem lower, but broader, an effect achieved by emphasizing the horizontal line.

ONLY LOW-GROWING plants should be planted in front of low homes.

Check with a landscape architect or a nurseryman really skilled at landscaping before buying the shrubby materials. It will prevent costly mistakes and loss of growing time.

Selection Of Next Year's Courses Holds Attention Of High School Classes

Stroudsburg school students are filling out schedules for the coming school year this week.

All scheduling is being done during the morning hours. Students now in the eighth, ninth, tenth and eleventh grades are picking their courses for the 1954-55 year.

According to Alfred Munson, Stroudsburg principal, the procedure is similar to that followed in past years at the School. Morning classes are held from 8:35 to 11:15 a. m.

Beginning at 11:15 a. m. and extending through 11:45 a. m., each day this week, students go through the regular scheduling lineup. Each student is given an instruction sheet outlining the exact steps he is to follow.

First step is to fill out, on a registration card given to each student, the required subjects. Once this is done, the student is given the opportunity to select his own "electives" courses which are not required but which may be taken in conjunction with the line of study the child wishes to pursue.

After this is finished, the student must sit down with the teachers of the elective subjects he has chosen. Each of the teachers has a supply of testing material, preliminary in nature, which gives an indication of the child's interests, aptitudes and abilities.

If the teacher of the subject agrees, then the student is signed up for the elective course. The teacher initials the card carried by the student.

The student then takes his card to one of the four pools assigned. The card is returned to the homeroom teacher where it is checked for accuracy and completeness.

The student is then asked to take the card home to his parent or guardian for signature and approval.

Among the tests used by consulting teachers during the selection of electives are the following: Symonds foreign language prognosis test; Iowa algebra test for aptitude; California mental maturity test; the Kuder preference record, testing vocational interests and the Thurstone temperament schedule.

Results from these tests — in conjunction with previous school marks — are compared with the interests expressed by the student himself.

Although Stroudsburg High School officials do not think of the student-teacher-parent scheduling program as the only answer to the problem, they do feel it has proved more successful from the school's standpoint than any other method.

Foremost advantage gained from the program can be found in the field of students completing their selected courses with satisfaction and little difficulty.

This factor is best evidenced in the number of students "dropping out" of courses after selection.

"The present program has proved beneficial in this respect," Munson said yesterday. "It does help us in helping the student select his own course of study."

They are very few "drop-outs" in the high school courses following the scheduling, Munson noted.

Glenn Detrick, Stroudsburg High School FFA chapter student, claimed sixth place in the regional "Junior Chicken of Tomorrow" contest at Franconia, it was announced last night.

THE GROWING TREND TO LINCOLN

One ride brings this picture of modern living to life

For most people, with Lincoln, the ride's the thing. Reasons come second.

So first, drive the new Lincoln yourself. In city traffic or on the highway, you'll have an uncanny feeling that you're driving a car that almost thinks for itself—that seems to anticipate your wishes. Your lightest toe-touch on the accelerator brings you instant response. Up front, after all, is the unmatched high-output, low-friction Lincoln V-205 engine—the finest product of the most experienced builders of V-8's.

Second, put Lincoln through its paces around curves. Notice the lack of sway, and how even flat curves feel "banked." One of the reasons:

better weight distribution with ball-joint front wheel suspension, the revolutionary engineering development found only in Lincoln among fine cars.

And, finally, stop the Lincoln. You have a feeling of complete safety because of Lincoln's new brakes—the biggest on any American-built car.

Is it any wonder that Lincoln for two years in a row took 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th places over all stock cars in the Mexican Pan-American Road Race? Or that last year more Lincolns were sold than in any other year?

You are invited to come in and take the ride that will show you how modern your driving can be.

For the fourth straight year, Lincoln wins first place in its field for economy in the famous Mobilgas Economy Run.

Don't miss the big television hit, "TOAST OF THE TOWN" with Ed Sullivan, Sunday evening, 8:00 to 9:00. Channels 2 and 10

Just Between Us

—By Bobby Westbrook

There was one story came in involving communities named Trout Run and Quigglesville. "What queer names," thought I to myself until I realized that all names sound queer when they're not familiar.

Certainly to a stranger Paradise and Devil's Hole, Skunk's Hicory and The Hogback, Brushy Mountain and Bear Swamp might sound a little fictional, while to us native ridge-runners they slip by without any surprise at all.

And without knowing the background, you might think it odd that the Gradale Sorority was currently collecting old stockings, old eye glasses and making barbecue sauce. However, the stockings are for the Ann Logan's dolls; the glasses are for a sight project, and the barbecue sauce is to sell; so it all makes sense.

Which is more than I do on the morning after election, even such a little election as yesterday. Shame on you who didn't vote at all.

Charles Dutt President Of Gap PTA

Delaware Water Gap—Benefits which the children of Delaware Water Gap might expect from merger with the school districts of Stroud Township and Stroudsburg, were presented by H. J. LeBar at the meeting of the Delaware Water Gap Parent Teachers Association on Monday night.

The merger would involve 16,000 children and 75 teachers, he said, and through it the districts would be able to provide a kindergarten, speech consultant, school psychologist, school nurse, a broader curriculum and a cafeteria.

Economically, Delaware Water Gap taxpayers would find their assessment rate lowered from 31 per cent to 29 per cent, and since they already pay a $10 school tax and $4 borough tax, there would be no increase in per capita tax.

LaBar also outlined the objections which have been raised to the jointure and the steps which the three school boards involved have taken to meet those objections. He urged PTA members to study the problem and to discuss it with residents of the school district.

During the business meeting Charles Dutt was elected as president; Mrs. Henry Kulp, vice president; Mrs. William Wildoss, secretary, and Mrs. Alvin Davis, treasurer.

The pre-school registration date was set for June 1. The teachers were authorized to set the date of the picnic at the close of school.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Francis Drake and Mrs. Earl Carlton.

THE Wyckoff SHOPPER

It's a song of praise I'm about to sing this morning, and since this is Frigidaire Week it's only natural that one of the Frigidaire appliances should be my inspiration. Oh, I could wax enthusiastic about the automatic dryer . . . or the range. But as the mother of three youngsters with an unbelievable affinity for dirt, my first and truest love is the automatic washer.

Why is a Frigidaire washer the finest on the market? Just ask Blanche Mackey if you won't take my words . . . and she'll tell you, the same as she told me yesterday while she perched on the edge of a green chair in my office. First she'll ask you a question. "What," she will demand, "do you want most of your washer?" Then she'll answer it before you get the chance. "That it will get your clothes really clean. Isn't that right?"

"Well naturally," you will say as I did. "And in the shortest possible time with the least effort."

Blanche will beam at you as she did at me, and agree, "Exactly . . . so you'll buy a Frigidaire. Just the way a Frigidaire is put together will appeal to you. For instance—as a housewife you probably aren't too mechanically minded. You get frightened when someone mentions oiling, and greasing, and belts—right? So there again you're happy with a Frigidaire. There are no belts and pulleys in Frigidaire construction. You have nothing to oil or grease. Frigidaire automatic washers are entirely self-lubricating. And here's another thing—Frigidaire washers are the only washers that are porcelain both inside and out. Most washers are porcelain inside to take soaps, bleaches, and hard usage . . . but outside there is just a dull enamel. Spill a bleach on it, or forget to dry every inch of it thoroughly and what happens? You have discoloration or rust."

As Blanche was talking, I was thinking that Frigidaire indeed is the perfect washer, for regardless of how careful one tries to be, there is certain to be spillage from time to time. And who wants a washer anyway that has to be dried so carefully after each using? There's not much sense in decreasing one's wash time, if cleanup time is going to take extra long—isn't that true?

Another feature of the Frigidaire automatic is the top loading. This may not seem such an important feature at first glance, but it is—along with the fact that a Frigidaire can be stopped at any point of the washing cycle. Many washers, once started, must run their full course before being shut off. It would be impossible to add or take out any item during that period. But with Frigidaire this is not the case. And you may wash as many or as few pieces as you wish in a load—the water level may be varied, which is another distinctive and flexible feature.

Blanche also discussed "pulsator" action, the simple "tent fashion" loading, the clean, lintless rinse—leaving water so clear that it could actually be drunk if necessary. Then she said something else—that nylons and lingerie come from the washer ready for ironing, and that even terry towels are practically dry when they leave the machine. "In fact," she said, "you can bring in the two strongest men you like, and let them take the ends of a towel and wring it. If they can squeeze out one drop of water, we'll give you a washer. We know that they can't."

Wonderful—Isn't it? But at the moment I think it might even be more wonderful to have two strong men and just one wee little drop of water oozing out of a Turkish towel!

Man Removed From Train. Sent To Jail

Jessie E. Gibson, 51, was dragged out from a place in a diesel locomotive of the DL&W Railroad early yesterday after the train had already started to move out of the station.

According to Justice of the Peace Herbert G. Bonser, East Stroudsburg, someone spotted the man and pulled the whistle. The conductor halted the train again and Gibson was removed. Bonser said the man would probably have slipped from his spot and fallen under the wheels had he not been seen.

At a hearing before Justice Bonser, Gibson was sentenced to 30 days in county jail for being drunk and disorderly.

Deubler, Blakeslee, will receive the degree of Bachelor of Science in Education. In college Deubler held membership in Gamma Theta Upsilon, World Outlook Club, Nature Club, Future Teachers of America and served on the Stroud Courier staff.

East Stroudsburg Clips Wilson In 13-Inning Marathon, 3-2

Pensyl's Hit Breaks Up Tough Struggle

Bill Sommers' brilliant six-hit pitching and a pair of "clutch" hits by Bill Pensyl enabled East Stroudsburg to gain a Lehigh-Northampton League baseball victory over Wilson Borough High yesterday after 13 torrid innings of play. The contest was held at East Stroudsburg Playground.

The Cavaliers, out of the title picture only because of a pair of early season setbacks, came off the deck in the sixth frame to tie the score and then win in the 13th. The contest took three hours to decide.

Sommers, pitching the finest game of his career, retired 16 batters on strikes and allowed only four free tickets to first. George Helm, Wilson ace, worked opposite Sommers throughout the game and fanned 14 batters while walking five.

Wilson broke a scoreless deadlock in the fifth. Cal Vogel dead-batted the frame with a walk, stole second and scampered home when Gene Piazza allowed Harry Keim's grounder to third to roll into left field.

The highly regarded invaders coached by Carlton Berger, picked up another counter in the sixth on a single by Ed Van Horn, a steal of second by the Wilson center fielder and a single by Dave "Yogi" Ferraro. Harold White just missed making a brilliant play on Perry Russo's smash to left. The East Stroudsburg shortstop got his glove on the ball but couldn't hold it.

East Stroudsburg, held to one hit during the first five innings, broke into a scoring rash in the sixth. White was hit on the right arm by a pitch to open the frame. A wild throw by Ferraro on an attempted pickoff enabled White to take second. He was sacrificed to third by Piazza and crossed the plate on Pensyl's single through the middle, just out of the reach of both the second baseman and shortstop. Pensyl went to second on the relay to the plate.

Bob "Bootsy" Miller dropped a short fly near the foul line in right field and Pensyl scampered home with the equalizer.

The pitching was brilliant through the next six innings, but the Cavaliers pulled the game out of the fire in the gathering gloom of the 13th.

Bob "Red" Kupczewski, seeing limited service because of a leg injury, singled to left to open the 13th. Frank Lupin took over as a runner for Kupczewski at first base and moved into second on a sacrifice by Piazza.

Pensyl took a strike and then poked a clean single to left center field which sent Lupin racing home with the winning run.

Bob Rogers and Willie Adelman. Three Stroudsburg errors also figured in the Pen Argyl scoring. A four-run fourth frame carried Pen Argyl to victory, but the home team came back with an insurance marker in the home half of the sixth.

LeRoy Van Buskirk singled, stole second and scored on a single by Rogers for Stroudsburg's fourth inning run, while walks to Paul "Doc" Lim and Dave Nevil and a pair of errors gave Stroudsburg a singleton in the fifth.

Lim and Nevil also walloped triples that failed to produce runs. Stroudsburg winds up its 1954 campaign on Friday at Catsaunquin.

Martins Creek Uses Early Lead To Sink Tatamy, 3-2

Tatamy—Martins Creek protected its undefeated record in the Blue Mountain Baseball League last night with a 3-2 victory in a twilight baseball game played here on the losing club's home grounds.

The game was halted in the top of the seventh because of darkness. Bases on balls and errors proved to be Ray Smith's toughest foes, as the Martins Creek contingent took advantage of the breaks to pick up one run in the first and two big markers in the fifth.

Home Run Bill Williams followed Ralph Fisher's double with a home run in the sixth frame to give Tatamy both of its runs, but darkness and Martins Creek proved too tough for the host aggregation.

Bob Weiss worked the distance for Martins Creek and gave up only four hits. Smith allowed only two safeties, but walks and errors turned the tide of battle.

Bangor Rolls To Nod Over Hellertown, 8-2

Bangor—Bangor High made its final baseball game of the season here at Memorial Park a winning one yesterday as Larry Raph pitched and halted the Slaters in an 8-2 victory over Hellertown.

The Slaters picked up three runs in the second frame and coasted to victory behind Raph's two-hit pitching. Hellertown picked up one single in each of the two innings it was capable of scoring.

Big Blow

Raph put the game on ice when he laced a double with the bases full in the fifth to clear the bases and send Bangor into a commanding 7-1 advantage at the time.

Bangor was held to three hits but took advantage of nine Hellertown errors to do his scoring.

RILEY

Yesterday's long awaited baseball game between East Stroudsburg and Wilson Borough High schools turned into one of the best scholastic diamond contests ever played in this area. Off hand I would say that it's the best high school contest to be played in East Stroudsburg or Stroudsburg during the past eight seasons. It was a thriller-diller, with the outcome very much in doubt until lanky Bill Penyl dropped a single into left-center field in the 13th inning.

It was a marvelous pitching duel between Bill Summers, courageous right hander from North Courtland St., and Wilson's highly regarded George Helms. It was an alert East Stroudsburg club that earned a deadlock in the sixth frame and victory in the gathering gloom of the 13th round, or six innings over regulation play. Summers pitched his finest game, being especially brilliant when the chips were down and appeared to grow stronger as the game progressed.

Summers registered 16 strikeouts, several coming in the overtime frames when Wilson threw up threats. The game was expected to be good and hard fought, but nobody could have honestly expected a knock-down, drag out battle such as the one that unfolded itself at East Stroudsburg Playground. Wilson came from behind late in the football battle between the arch foes last fall to win. Yesterday the story had an exactly opposite twist with the Cavaliers finishing on the long end of the count.

Special praise belongs to Penyl who came through with game saving hits in both the sixth and 13th innings, to Harold White for a brilliant game at shortstop and to Bob "Booster" Miller who also chipped in with a "money" safety in the sixth. It was a team victory for the Cavaliers, one of which they can be proud. If Eastburg could have escaped two bad innings earlier in the campaign the Cavaliers would be high and dry in first place and headed for the Lehigh-Norampton League championship.

Troopers flared on the Wilson bench during the course of the game and at least one player reported to Coach Carlton Berger that he was quitting the team right on the spot. East Stroudsburg's victory knocked Wilson from the pennant picture. Right now the battle seems to be between undefeated Coplay and once defeated Nazareth. The East Stroudsburg win yesterday so excited the people that it appeared more like a favorable decision in football than in baseball.

In defeat Wilson's catcher, Dave "Yogi" Perruso, covered himself with glory. He did a fine job of catching, was a real threat with the stick and his cool head carried the excited Wilson club over several rough spoils during the course of the game. Dave is a junior at the present time and will be too old to play next year according to Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association standards. But major league scouts are already asking questions about the stocky receiver.

But the entire picture of the game was painted by the pitchers, who matched toss for toss most of the way, before Helms gave way before the hard working Summers who won his fourth contest of the season. Coach Jack Kist, a native of Wilson Borough, had a strange glow about him as he and his pupils took a breath following the three-hour dog fight.

Little League Plans Change

Bangor—Carl E. Stotz, commissioner of Little League baseball, turned thumbs down on the planned two-light, night doubleheader planned by the Bangor Little League for opening day here at Memorial Park.

Stotz ruled that the Little League would not permit night baseball.

Same Date

The season will still open on Saturday, June 5, but the doubleheader will be played in the afternoon. First game action is carded for 1:30 p.m.

TTHS Nips Polk In Thriller, 2-1

Pocono Pines—Tobyhanna Township tallied runs in the first and 10th innings here yesterday to break up an extra inning game and earn a 2-1 verdict over Polk, here on the winning contingent's home field.

The victory was the second of the Monroe County League season.

for TTHS. It was also the final game of the current campaign for the Polk club.

TTHS opened the scoring with a run in the first and then won the contest in the third overtime session. Willard Costanzo homered to right in the first and scored the winning run on a single by Jim Judge.

Costanzo opened the 10th with a single and moved to third on two infield outs. Judge beat out a hit to short to score the TTHS pitcher with the winning run.

The host club held a 7-6 edge in hits and Polk committed the only error of the ball game.

Costanzo pitched the route for TTHS, retiring 12 men on strikes, while John Answalt pitched another fine game for Polk. Answalt fanned 10 batters.

Vacationlands Association To Meet Thursday

Mountainhome — Pocono Vacationlands Association will meet at Onawa Lodge Thursday night at 7:15.

All persons in Barrett Township who are interested in the resort industry are invited to attend the meeting and become members of the PVA, a spokesman said.

William Malleson, manager of Skytop, will be the main speaker. He will discuss the purposes and basic aims of the PVA, stressing the importance of cooperative efforts on the part of all resort owners and businessmen in the area.

The PVA is the newest resort group in the Pocono Mountains area. During the past two weeks it has taken a stand in opposition to the State-announced plan to close Route 90 for the major portion of the summer.

Aided by editorial support from The Daily Record and by other resort owners in the area, the PVA waged a successful campaign to end the detour on the route before heavy summer traffic begins.

Detour of the route was caused by construction of an overpass at the Cresco D. L. and W. railroad crossing. State engineers and Lee E. Marks, contractor in charge of the job, now have set a June 1 working date for opening of a bypass to the construction.

The bypass was originally proposed by members of the PVA and Barrett businessmen who warned that a summer-long detour would result in a half-million dollar loss to their business.

When it is opened, the bypass will allow a free flow of traffic past the construction site.

Pocono Vacationlands Association directors cited the original aim of the group as an effort "to do those things cooperatively which need to be done with the combined efforts of all local interests."

Lutheran Pastors To Return To Buck Hill Falls In 1955

Buck Hill Falls—Evangelical Lutheran Ministerium of Pennsylvania voted yesterday to hold its 1955 convention at The Inn here, where the current 207th annual convention is being held.

On so doing, the Ministerium declined an invitation from Trinity Lutheran Church in Reading for the convention next year. The decision was considered a high tribute to the Pocono Mountains region by local delegates attending the meeting.

In other actions during the day, the Ministerium elected new officers, none of whom were from local churches. A home missions report was the highlight of the afternoon conference sessions.

In that report, Rev. Robert S. Anderson told delegates that "home missions thrive on abnormality" in discussing the work of his own mission congregation in Media. Rev. Anderson said that because of "abnormal movements in population" the work in these missions continues to grow.

Other reports emphasized the importance of increasing interracial work to carry out resolutions passed by the United Lutheran Church, the Ministerium's parent body.

Rev. Frederick R. Knobel, representing the U. L. C. of America at the present convention, addressed the convention yesterday. He will speak again today. Among those elected to office
